Child Marriage Prevention Workshop and Awareness Programme

(20th September 2022)

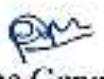

"Child Marriage Prevention Workshop and Public Awareness Program" was conducted by Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and NSS Department of Shri Guru Buddhiswami College, Purna, in association with the Child Development Department Section, Collector Office, Parbhani. Mr. Kailas Tidke, officer of Parbhani Collectorate, was the chief guide for this program. He explained what are the preventive measures to prevent child marriages. He explained why child marriage should not be done and the fines, punishments and other detailed information for those who do it and those who do it. The government has laid down the rules and conditions of human life and marriage while procreating. He created an energy in the students that such things should not happen around us, if they happen, they should be informed about it to the government so that the calamities of the next generation will be avoided and Indians will be active in every aspect and move on the path of development.

Hon. Principal Dr. K. Rajkumar, Vice Principal Prof. Dr. Sanjay Dalvi, Dr. Raju Sheikh, Dr. Vijay Pawar, Dr. Prakash Bhange, Dr. Shivasamb Kapse, Mr. Bendsure Sandeep (Collector Offices, Parbhani), faculty and non-teaching staff of the college were present. About 112 college students were present for the workshop. The girls asked several questions regarding their problems and took part actively in the workshop. Dr. Sanjay Dalvi, in his presidential address urged the NSS volunteers to work as detectives and bring the cases of child marriages to the notice of the administration, so that the marriages can be stopped. Program Officer Dr. Pushpa Gangasagar conducted the proceedings of the workshop and Dr. Ajay Kurhe expressed vote of thanks. Dr. Raju Shaikh, Dr. Ravindra Rakh, Dr. Somnath Gunjkar, stived hard for the success of the workshop.
